Continuous interaction with students can build trust which can fine-tune the relationship between the teacher and child.

KINDERGARTEN

We believe that a school is not preparation for life, it is life itself.....

The shaping of CTins begins in the kindergarten of the school.

- The child progresses in the colourful painted four walls of his classroom where he is nurtured by the warmth, affection and commands of his motherly teachers.
- The décor and building is adorned aiming to develop cognitive skills of the students.
- In the art room, they create with colors, clay and paper.
- Their activity room is decked with squeeze balls, puzzle games, rockers and stuffed toys.
- They dance to the tunes of the latest musical beats.
- The little ones stretch their muscles, breathe deeply and enjoy to the fullest in the lush green play fields studded with swings, merry-go-rounds, see-saws and ball shots.
- Swimming seasons are the unique feature of kindergarten. In their colorful costumes they swim in the pool of international standards under the keen observation of trained coaches and life guards.
- Swimming and Riding go hand in hand. They cheerfully enjoy the moments of riding with the jockey and two helpers.
- These youngsters roll on the skates guarded by an experienced coach. In the quagmire of jet set facilities, we have not forgotten our roots. We celebrate festivals, sharing activities, visits to explore nature and helping elderly people to bring them close to the Indian heritage.

The CTians frequenting the stage and facing the mike in school activities and assemblies prepare them to receive the formal education of the primary wing.

CT PUBLIC SCHOOL infuses the child with the spirit of camaraderie, competitiveness and cohesion right at the grass root level through the House system. Each child initiated into CT Public School is placed in a House and is gradually introduced to the ethos of the institution. Each house has a House Master and House Mistress to whom he/she may turn for assistance at any time. All students from class I to XII are placed in the four houses and all activities of academic, co-curricular and intemural, are based on inter-house competitions.

The house system was devised to promote team spirit and a sense of belonging to the school. Also, this enables the senior students of the school to provide guidance to their junior schoolmates. The house system provides excellent opportunities for student leadership and peer group support. Aided by dedicated staff members, and house captains, it is a remarkable medium for enabling students of different ages to bond family. The house system helps support and co-ordinate the corporate life of the school and develops the athletic side of school life along with the purely scholastic aspect, and thereby attains the goal of a liberal education, namely " a healthy mind in a healthy body. " The house system provides students with support and encouragement in their academic and co-curricular activities.

House staff are able to monitor their students' progress and cultivate positive relationships through the houses. The system provides an exciting division of the mass of pupils into units wherein each pupil has a rightful place and in which he takes pride. Houses are a common and successful way of building a superb school community and spirit. The houses compete in different sporting, cultural, and academic competitions, and provide an excellent way to synergize pupils of different classes and ages, all of whom have a common goal and purpose.
